I can't even express the thought of in excess
And all the love for all my angels
And friendship which enables Prosperity and good will
For the cup of life will spill
And bring us a new dawn
To which we feel reborn
And all the vibe of all the colours
And intellectual muller's
Who read all the above
And feed off all our
Will turn their cries to sing
Not taken under wing
For now we surely know
Our peace will always grow

I always thought that it would be an illusion
But only time will tell, only time will tell

I can't even express, the thought of emptiness
And all the people who are around me
And things that you will soon see
The spirits of my domain
Will never stay the same again
Until we surely find a peace that more inclined
And all the vibe of all the colours
And intellectual muller's
Who read all the above
And feed off all our
Will turn their cries to sing
Not taken under wing
For now we surely know
Our peace will always grow

Forever changing my mind is rearranging
My words are contemplating
And my thoughts are always skating
Around and around I cannot here a sound
The words are blocked out
And my feet aint left the ground
So I stop, I think, I really need a drink
And just before I blink I realise I'm jinxed

I lose my inhibition I need another mission
You will never catch me bitching
As I rock out in the kitchen
I await my date I need to hesitate
Do think I got it easy cos its handed on a plate
Too late, my fate this world aint full of hate
And that is all I have to say as I deliberate

Forever moving my bodies always grooving
The sounds are always soothing
And my heart is always using
The love that I feel when I bounce in time
IÂ'm free like a bird in the sunshine
I crouch down to the sound if I like the bass
I put my hands in the air and I scrunch up my face
I dance till my legs get weaker
To the rhythm that I here from the speaker
IÂ'm a school teacher
When I jump on the mic
IÂ'm nursery rhyming while riding my bike
If we do show and tell you can show me what you like
We can play all day in that rainbow light
So if you want to be my friend and bounce around with me
You got to spread that love with positivity
You got to bend the bend the boundaries of reality
And finally together we can be free
