Keep this on your mind,
Keep it within your eyelids.
We have ascended countless stairs,
Perhaps it has interrupted our thoughts.
Regret is an inception, regret is a beginning.
Miles and miles of wires build the apparatus,
But don't mistake power lines for shelter.
I forgot and it will more than likely happen again.
Drink and binge the waters of the sea.
Keep this on your mind,
Keep it within your eyelids.
Don't climb for a lifetime only to fall short of infinity.
Everything is left.
With faith, some minds are sand;
But I prefer concrete.
This is what is going to separate us from them.
Time for the next chapter.
Keep this on your mind,
Keep it within your eyelids.
