This is the faith
This is the faith complex,
Where all it takes is another step so we can then step again
It's not all about the numbers
Its not all about the numbers
This is the faith
This is the faith complex,
Try not to write another disappointing letter to integrity,
Only go faster when you've stopped and thought,
Only go slower when you've learned of wisdom.
Everything is a question of goodwill,
But we're too busy delivering answers with arrogance, Isn't it funny how ones compassion diminishes when his or her own perils rise?
Perils Rise
perils rise
It's not all about the numbers,
its not all about the numbers
What should we ask for?
Who should we look to if all we know is burning bridges?
Don't speak to me like I'm a stranger.
Turn your thoughts to the roots,
As we've all been caught up in the branches.
With roots above and branches below,
Don't run if you don't know your walk,
This is the faith
This is the faith complex,
This is a memoir to friends persisting
this is the faith complex.
