"Snowcovered Lands"

Visit "Snowcovered Lands" on MotoLyrics.com

Clouds are closing in
From behind the horizon
Taking away the sunlight
Turning it into shadows

Snow is falling down
The wind cuts through the forest
Makes the snow swirling into the night
And my heart is already frozen

Clouds are closing in Clouds of snow

Black walls are fading the sunlight

Lands are getting mysterious
Everything is faded
Wolves are gathering
Underneath the gates

Clouds are coming down
Forming a wall of mist
You will not find your way out of this pale source of light
