If you have the time, would you keep me in mind?

Mind you, I only want to treat you kind,

If you're all alone, would you pick up the phone

And dial the number that you know will bring back the glow

That's been gone for such a long, long time?

I feel like I'm just acting like a fool,

Talking to my pillow,

Once a happy fellow, was I,

I know that I'll get over you if I have to,

But do I have to?

I don't want to spend another day

Being so far away from the girl that I love. (Love, love, love)

It's been gone for such a long, long time.

Talking to my pillow,

Mind you, I only want to treat you kind,

If you're all alone, would you pick up the phone

And dial the number that you know will bring back the

That's been gone for such a long, long time?
