No other love stood the test of time
Can you imagine how I'd feel if you were mine?
Once I know that's it's not make believe
It's plain to see that you've got something over me

You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark
You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark

With other girls it's just been physical
So many times before I never cared at all
With you I realize what love could be
And I can feel that you've got something over me

You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark
You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark

You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark
You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark

You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark
You hold the key to my secret heart
Just turn the lock and we could be the lovers after dark
