

Defyance "Between The Lies"

Visit "Between The Lies" on MotoLyrics.com

Cast to the world with a vision of perfect life
Now all your hope and your dreams are based on time
From the very first day you were told that the world could be yours
Shaped in the image of those who came before

(pre-chorus)
Now you will see
That your life can no longer be saved
How can it be
That to this life you must stay a slave

Hoping the masses will cling to your every word
You scream from the top of your lungs and still you're not heard
Forget all the images burned into your eyes Won't you come closer we'll tear right through your disguise

(pre-chorus)
Now you will see
That your life can no longer be saved
How can it be
That to this life you must stay a slave

(Chorus 2x)
Now I have seen you
I've seen right through your disguise
Now I have shot you
Straight between your lies

(solo)

(Chorus 2x)
