

Defyance "Coming Home"

All the leaves have turned to gray and the signs on the wall all these feelings I felt for the world now they're gone, winter's near, and I'm on my way back home

I am here alone with you as you're looking up at me we are here alone so let me love you I have wanted this for the longest time all that's good is here so let me love you take me, don't break me, I want to be one with you

You're the reason I live and die no one will ever pass judgment onto you for your love I'm willing to die when I see you smile
when I hear you cry
it makes me one day to your heart when I look in your eyes and I see love shine
now my heart is on the line I can't wait another night when away from you my world stops turning you've got everything I need

Your love cuts and my heart bleeds just the thought can set my soul on fire I'm lost without love, there's nothing that I can do Now I can't wait to get back to your heart winter is falling oh no what can I do send your soul to open my eyes
when I see you smile
When I hear you cry

chorus

I'm coming home
