Thunder in my heart
Lightning in my veins Soldier against the world
going against the grain

With my spirit strong
Never will I fail
With my sword of steel Storm the gates of hell

No more, no tears will fall
The world turns on

Angels up above
demons down below
the earth is just a battleground the devil is my foe

I will cross the fire
to help a soul in need I will crush the beast with music as my steed

No more, no darkness falls

Seize the day
live life and play this game
seize the day
find your heart
and feed the flame

I look to the sky
fall down on my knees scream for the power to guide my beliefs

Open up the door
capture my own dreams break the chains that bind and make reality

and now and forever we will

seize the day
find your heart and feed the flame

seize the day
seize the day
arm your heart and feed the flame feed the flame
come on, seize the day.
