"The Game"

As the days turn slowly by
Waiting for your time to come
Climbing wall that seem to reach into the sky

Suddenly you find the wall is not the one you want
So now you have to go and start again

Reaching for more
Bleeding your soul

Time to stop the game
Choose what you really want to be
Find the strength to carry on and say
I will fight

The thrill of life is in the chase

Reaching for more
Bleeding your soul

Time to stop the game
Choose what you'd really like to be
Find the strength to carry on and say
I will fight
