"Face In"

He thinks, he needs me,
to be seen, she will.
He says, it's easy,
and he sees, what she feels.

So I get my dress on.
Could I get my dress on?
And I put my face right?
And I put my face in?

In lanes, the feeling, goes my way.
But you won't find out.
No you don't find out.
What it takes to go down, down.

So I get my dress on.
Could I get my dress on?
And I put my face right?
And I put my face in?

He needs me, face in.
Face in fire.

Till I get my dress on.
Till I get my dress on.
And I put my face right?
And I put my face in?
