Well I know, there's truth in bones.
And your bones, haven't grown.
And I hope, you're thinking slow,
cos I don't need, to know. Oh.

Will I owe some time, and I owe someone,
for helping to get me in.
Will I owe some time, and I owe someone,
for helping to get me in, in.
Get me in.

Well I know, there's growth in bones.
And your bones, they look grown.
And I know, you're keeping hold.
Of what I know, I've grown.

Will I owe some time, and I owe someone,
for helping to get me in.
And I owe some breaks, for filling in.
No, I don't think to win.
I don't think to win.

Will I owe some time, and I owe someone,
for helping to get me here.
