Lyrics by Dale, Music by Robert Brookins

Shoot me a shot of happy

Show me how it feels to make believe

You're in a euphoric state and I wanna be in it

Let me be the question that you need

Play me like a piano so sweet

I'll be your love next to life

GOD give me one more night, 'cause

Ouch that feels good

ouch (ouch) that feels good (ouch)

Speak my words before I think them

Make me the choice of your kingdom

Trace my face with your fingertips

Hold me till death, nourish my lips (MWOI)

Race me with your witted thoughts

Your charm and smile, pump my heart

Teach me your chromatic scales

Spare me the tears of a blue moon tale

Ouch, ouch, that feels good, I'm tellin' you

ouch (ouch) that feels good,

ouch that feels good (ouch)

Ouch (ouch) that feels good

Ouch!

[spoken on top of: "tellin you tellin' you, tellin' you it feels good"]

Like a cat in the night you ran across my bed

Filled my head with ummmmmm instead

I know you can and I might but don't tell me, show me

Night time falls too short to share my ideas

And that feels so good

It's impossible to react

When if you give, baby, you naturally get back

Drawing my conclusions and surviving on, ummmmm, illusions

The cat in the night, that ran across my bed

Filled my head

I know you can and I might, but don't tell me, show me

Night time falls too short

I

Feel

Good

Ouch that feels good (ouch, ouch)

Ouch that feels good (good, good, ouch) ouch, that feels good (good, tellin' you )

Ouch that feels good (good, good good, ouch ouch)

Ouch
