"What Once Was, Again Shall Be"

Visit "What Once Was, Again Shall Be" on MotoLyrics.com

Awakened from an ancient slumber unleashed upon the earth from deep inside four twisted minds evil incarnate bringing forth a world of pain and ghastly abominations population termination sonic violence, obliteration

The mind melts, essence destroyed

Too powerful to be contained lightning splits the sky emitting a death-like knell sound divine

Like the ones before you, we will watch you die One by one, human holocaust
