Almighty and eternal god, established sacred rites Patterns of order, sacrifice, and worship

Doomed by prophecy, written in stone Prophets and martyrs, see visions from heaven

The creation of hell on earth, not yet lucifer's
There shall be a dark soul,
A soul that rests in a man.

The coming of the nephilim, savior of humanity,
A child of light, loyal to god's will

Angels carrying savage weapons
branded in angelic script

I sang the first hymns when the stars were born I turn kings into cripples and cities into salt I light the candles for the dying and the dead I'll steal your soul and send the corpse to hell

The final confrontation tore to kingdom apart
Ash from a burning heaven covers the earth

Blind my eyes from the horror
Deafen my ears from the screams
Haven't you seen it yet, it's paradise

Angels carrying savage weapons
branded in angelic script
We have come here to steal a dark soul
We have come here, to where we are mortal.
