Death by anger
Seared with pain
Soul who wanders
What is thy name
Intrigue thy master
From far below
With life anew
Into thy soul!

Bolted doors and windows barred
Won't protect you in your bed
Nothing will from the dead

Empty eyes my body lies
Black defined alive my mind

Invoked... With the blood of the damned

Revenge... For the demon dead
Banished... To unholy places

Death's arrived cast aside
Oblong box from the outside locks
Six feet under, eternal slumber
Purgatory, end of story

Bolted doors and windows barred
Won't protect you in your bed
Nothing will from the dead!
