[Verse 1]

You and me, when we go and we popping the locks,
Cause we left the keys in the back car of the cops,
And it's fucked up what a lack of cash will do,
And I gotta make it through, never had trouble with you,
Forget your past and just live for the future,
Keep bumping dope music that'll eventually move ya,
And everybody wanna be with you cause you getting fans and all,
Just remember the time when your back was on the wall,
Then they come back when you get a bit of that money,
A shame cause my whole family's running, away from me,
I guess the past really creeps up on you what a shame,
I just gotta understand the intensity of the game,
And you gotta be in pain if you wanna make it,
Beat the competition unethically as you fake it,
I produce my own hits, fuck a collab right?
Might as well grab all the credit I can tonight,
In the afterlife and everything is tight,
But I keep it that way, so you and me gon' get it right.

[Chorus]

[Verse 2]

You and me, what the fuck are we doing together,
I can't believe you wanna come back and make it all better,
When I was in the same bed as you, you didn't wanna fuck,
Sick to death of this shit so just fuck this slut,
Fuck my car and just fuck my luck and anything later,
Tell me what I am to a hater, gon' be amusing,
Just laugh at this shit cause I just love my music,
If you still get offended by shit in 012,
You needa pack your bags and leave this damn hell,
It's not for you like it's for others,

Word to the Mother, Kane told me fuck a disaster,
Cause a destiny for you and your fam,
And your fans around you,
And I'm making money without you,
Cereal with champagne, gold in your teeth,
Kelis used to bring them lil boys right in the street,
And it's funny to me,
Cause my business deals ain't bad, but they need work,
Getting advice from no names, put your face in the dirt,
You gon' be definitely hurt,
They wanna know how I did it, just put your head down and work bitch.

[Chorus]
