[Chorus]

Stuck in the moment,
I'm stuck in the moment, it's true, yeah, yeah,
Stuck in the moment, it's true, yeah, yeah,
I don't know what this future's holding,
That's why I live each moment like it's golden,
My destiny I'm holding, I'm, Stuck in the moment,
I'm stuck in the moment, it's true, yeah, yeah.

[Verse 1]

So I'm stuck in the moment, I'm sitting back and I'm still hoping,
Lord got my eyes really open where I'm still,
Gettin' to the back with chit chat,
Got my hat back and I back track,
My weareness taught me 3 things,
You gotta be original, drunk night's subliminal,
Movements be pivotal,
Never really cry for pain, mane,
So, I stunt like Baby and I work like Wayne,
Now let's pursue the Trojan of the game, yep, I'm just a kid, living on a dream what's to hate on that?
I know I shouldn't interact, with the 151 Bacardi Rum, and the, Kush still craving some,
It's like I'm Criminal Minded, like KRS One when he first started,
I'm the only artist to do this shit regardless to,
Bounce, we bounce to this, searching for the lifestyle,
Ignorant bliss,
We rockstars with a brainless bitch,
If you wanna party then let's go,
Got the best droe,
Concentration low,
We cruising, window's down playing Joe, and a bit of J
Cole,
Rest in peace Nate Dogg, we gon' lay low, yep.

[Chorus]

[Verse 2]

This ain't Lupe, so it donâ€™t really matter,
It's the good die young, and the Hoes get fatter,
I disregard females who look for sex round town, Man I'm living faster then I would in my 20s, Damn I gotta slow down,
Nah I donâ€™t throw down, business plans just to win
this crowd,
I'm still rocking a Snapback, fresh kicks, high tops,
Sweatshirts,
But they donâ€™t understand me like my Pops when he had his f-face straight in the dirt, Gotta love this new generation lil kids, cause I pushed the gap,
I do my thing, I always stay humble but I never really try to react to fucken hate like that,
But life is funny like that,
Got love for Mary Jane like Peter Parker do, but but,
If you fuck with me, you won't care what I've been through,
Still got love for Miami Heat although they on that losing streak,
But I stay blessed and I stay winning, on another planet my head is spinning.

[Verse 3]

N-never really, L-literally, donâ€™t waste what u got only living it once,
My lifes a movie with numerous puns, and I know, I know,
Man these hoes are boring to conversate with, I just want all of ya'll on my Goddamn dick,
This could be something weak, but it's this beat thatâ€™s making it amazing, but I love this, Champagne pop, with a lil' in the middle and I never stop,
Astronaut speed try fly to the top,
I go out and forget to text my Moms,
Man I just wanna go to vegas and see the palms, right now this is just me rapping on some fucken stupid
other shit, damn,
Still dreaming bout success as if I'm sleeping on Mars, I chill and work when I can never really claim the best bars, reptar in the flesh, Sso do you really want to see me to be the next?
But I keep living life according to my plan, I never gave a fuck about "Yes Man"

[Chorus]
