[Chorus:]

Baby come back, any kinda fool could see
There was something, in everything about you
Baby come back, you can blame it all on me
I was wrong and I just can't live without you

[Verse 1:]

Yeah... text message read I'm fed up with you I'm thinking it's a new dude I got trust issues
But little did I know, she say she bored with me
Said she gon' keep it real... be straight forward with me
Said I don't take her out, said I don't have no time
Said all I do is rap but said she respected my grind
She just saying that she wants some affection sometimes
Like a movie and dinner not just sex all the time
I shake my head I'm like, here we go again
Put the phone in my pocket, reached back for my pen
And went back to the rhyming and conversatin with friends
Not knowing that my girl was really gone in the wind
Knowing damn well she all I need in this world of sin Without my one and only joy how would I ever grin again
She was all I ever dreamed man shanty was a ten
Who would known I'd be alone, here sipping on this gin like...

[Chorus:]

Baby come back, any kinda fool could see
There was something, in everything about you
(I know the way a nigga living was whack but you don't get a nigga back like that, baby girl I'm the Mac) Baby come back, you can blame it all on me (you could blame it all on me)
I was wrong and I just can't live without you (Hear me out)

[Verse 2:]

It's been about a week since I've seen her face
I ain't called her yet... trying to give her her space

The crazy thang is, she ain't called me either Should've at least called by now since I ain't seen her
Her myspace name say that she tired of cheaters
She took me off her top 8 and her status say single I'm scratching my head like what the hell is going on I must've missed the part when this relationship was going wrong
But usher said it's the simple things that we forget
Like checking in, caking on the phone, and giving gifts
And there comes a time when women get tired of being upset
And go find another dude who has time to give her his best
I can't even describe all the heartache that's in my chest
But I was taking her for granted, so what else should I expect Maybe I could have called more, and responded to every text
Now I'm sitting here at home alone full of regret like...
damn

[Chorus:]

Baby come back, any kinda fool could see (Any kinda fool could see, that I was meant for you and you were meant for me...
man)
There was something, in everything about you
Baby come back, you can blame it all on me
(I said baby come back, you could blame it all on me)
I was wrong and I just can't live without you (I can't)

[Verse 3:]

I ain't party with her, I ain't club with her
So she on the dance floor with another nigga
She told me it's forever, now she say it's whatever
She really got me tripping I gotta get it together
I sacrificed so much, put her before myself
Now everything we shared she gon' give to someone else
This whole situation, has truly left me damaged
My mind's messed up, it's hard for me to manage
I took her for granted, and now I understand it
You don't know what you got, til you no longer have it
But baby I'm a tell you like this In the end... imam be who you miss Cause can't nobody love you like me I'll always be number 1
You threw away our love just so you could have fun
I know I ain't perfect I'm human I make mistakes Let's just try to work this all out before it's too late please...

[Chorus:]

Baby come back, any kinda fool could see
There was something, in everything about you
Baby come back, you can blame it all on me
I was wrong and I just can't live without you
