[Verse 1:]

It's kinda funny how we met ain't it
A coincidence some would name it
But, for nothing girl I wouldn't change it
Nor trade it we goon make our love story famous Others hatin, as they should
It's crazy how your smile turns a bad day good
More crazy how I end up getting a call
Right after I wonder if I'm on your mind at all
And I'm on my job, making sure your happy
Ain't that what's important who cares how they look at me
Like a thug bad influence or maybe just your fling
But, I'm your king, yeah sure thing
And your my queen so I treat you accordingly
Never thought I'd meet a girl I love more than me
And most importantly what I feel for you
You feel for me, it's clear to see
I'm here for you and you here for me
I root you on while you cheer for me
I pack what you lack you pick up my slack
We're a team baby girl that's that. yeah

[Chorus:]

Girl I know you know that I love you
And I can't, go a day without my mind on you
And it ain't, nothing in this world that I won't do
For you babe, that's why I hold it down and I show you
Because you, and me make one hell of a we
Yeah baby girl you, plus me, makes one hell of a team

[Verse 2:]

I know it's times you can't stand me
But you ain't looking for a plan B
Cause you can't make another man me
And one day, we gon have a family
And I'm a give that ring finger a rock
And we goon give the haters middle fingers a lot
And we goon do us let them others get them
If I don't know much I know that we best friends
It's times I hurt you and you hurt me

But if it wasn't rough times what would our worth be Huh? All that does is make us stronger
And guarantee that we go on last longer
All the care I got for you you got for me
Together forever is what it's got to be
Your my love, and I'm your stud
I make the other dudes look like scrubs
And you make the baddest look average
Take's a couple lifetimes to get to our status
Speaking of lifetimes I wanna spend mine
Waking up looking in your eyes... yeah

[Chorus:]

Girl I know you know that I love you
And I can't, go a day without my mind on you
And it ain't, nothing in this world that I won't do
For you babe, that's why I hold it down and I show you
Because you, and me make one hell of a we
Yeah baby girl you, plus me, makes one hell of a team

[Talking:]

This dedicated to you baby, I love you
You know I love you, you got me singing girl!
You make me wanna sing!

[Chorus:]

Girl I know you know that I love you
And I can't, go a day without my mind on you
And it ain't, nothing in this world that I won't do
For you babe, that's why I hold it down and I show you
Because you, and me make one hell of a we
Yeah baby girl you, plus me, makes one hell of a team
