Rising up from the ashes of their own broken dreams
To carry on their laws of hate as their doctrine deems
Continuing their terror-reign extermination rites Seeking out greater goals even though they've lost the fight
The twisted cross is still alive

Fitting of a heart so black the south they dwell
Tropical heat so hot as if to thrive in Hell
Corrupt aristocrats make their paradise

Forgetting past atrocities, mankind's sacrifice
The Fourth Reich, Growing stronger

Silent beast stalking life, Nazi's silent march Always scoffing, laughing at the world's vain search
Continuing their terror reign extermination rites
Seeking out greater goals even though they've lost the
fight
The Fourth Reich lives on...
