It's so very sad that I prefer to sleep in a Hollywood bed
And it's so very sad that I prefer a love so miserably led.

Well what did you want? Would you rather this in a different font? I don't Know.

I'm happy to say that I am forever changing my ways.
For there is nothing else to spill, except a demi-format bottle of pills.

Well what did you want? Would you rather this in a different font? Oh, no.

Is this the end? has our time come and gone? It's like every book we've
Read and every film we saw.
If this is how our world must fall apart, no sewing kits to mend our broken
Hearts, clearly there's no point in this pretense.
Still we're left to find out how it ends.
How will it end? Is this the end?
