warlords of the underworld we raise each glass in your praise tonight and celebrate bad decisions made like batteries and Escalades imbibe with me in this fantasy of consequential reality have you ever given up just to find it was your ticket out?

picture perfect worlds and you revel until your face turns blue jest attack
you take a nap
burning trees
you drink a little sap control your minds with ass and tits bunnies die to make your cheap lipstick i'm not gonna stay home tonight i'm not gonna know wrong from right i'm not gonna follow the light i'm gonna fight
