"What Lies Below"

A dirty face in your pretty world ya don't know me
I sailed in from the wrong side of the sea
A crooked grin with weathered skin ya don't know me take a ride through the black of night and you'll see What lies below
What lies below
carried on and untold

A pretty face full of innocence it means nothing raid the village and take the women as slaves
A pretty face full of innocence it means nothing
a cap n ball simply shatters your faith

Say a prayer as you're sung to sleep and behold the sacred melody Say a prayer as you walk the plank you've been chosen now hang from the gallows.

I sit and wait too long to carry on I did it all alone I'll carry on
