I went down to the river
But the river was dry
I went down to the sea
But it was not the place to be
So I climbed the highest mountain
And I climbed to the mountaintop
Girl, I found me a home
And I don't have to roam

Au bord de la rivi re
Mais la rivi re  tait s che
Au bord de la mer gras
n' tait pas la place pour moi
Je trouve la plus haute montagne
Mais la montagne  tait trop haute
Oh j'ai trouv  mon foyer
Il faut plus me promener

Well I went down to the river
But the river was dry
I went down to the sea
But it was not the place to be
So I climbed the highest mountain
And I climbed to the mountaintop
Girl, I found me a home
And you know I can't stop

Oh je chante ma p'tit chanson
Avec l'esprit de la Louisiane
Oh je viens des grandes prairies
Les grandes prairies de Manitoba
Oh la langue est tout la m me
Mais la culture un p'tit peu diff rent
Oh c'est toute une grande famille
Je chante pour toi, je chante por moi!
