They wouldn't hear your music
And they tore your paintings down
They wouldn't read your writing
And they banned you from the town
But they couldn't stop you dreaming
And a victory you have won
For you sowed the seeds of freedom
In your daughters and your sons

Your weary smile it proudly hides
The chain marks on your hands
As you bravely strive to realize
The rights of everyman
And though your body's bent and low
A victory you have won
For you sowed the seeds of justice
In your daughters and your sons

In your daughters and your sons
Your daughters and your sons
You sowed the seeds of justice
In your daughters and your sons

I don't know your religion
But one day I heard you pray
For a world where everyone can work
And children they can play
And though you never got your share
Of the victories you have won
For you sowed the seeds of equality
In your daughters and your sons

In your daughters and your sons
Your daughters and your sons
You sowed the seeds of equality
In your daughters and your sons

They taunted you in Belfast
And they tortured you in Spain
And in the Warsaw ghetto
Where they tied you up in chains
In Vietnam and Chile

Where they came with tanks and guns
It's there you sowed the seeds of peace
In your daughters and your sons

In your daughters and your sons
Your daughters and your sons
There you sowed the seeds of peace
In your daughters and your sons

Now your music's playing
And the writing's on the wall
And the dreams that you have painted
Can be seen by one and all
Now you've got them thinking
And the future's just begun
Where you sowed the seeds of freedom
In your daughters and your sons

In your daughters and your sons
In your daughters and your sons
Sowed the seeds of freedom
In your daughters and your sons

In your daughters and your sons
In your daughters and your sons
Sowed the seeds of freedom
In your daughters and your sons
