With neither speech nor portrayals he gazed up towards infinity's face and as aloft the circles he rose, a sudden breath of dark forgotten dreams came true

For never had he entered the fiery gates, the mirror passage entry to another existence
To another plane

Above the circles emerged another dream For no man of mortal shell could know where or when this planet existed

He drifted and saw stars sweep across the sky
He saw suns perish
He saw visions rise from emerald darkness
And lunar moonlit seas
A thousand years and then a thousand moons...
