When all is said and done, it's over with Revisit if you will, but don't waste my time Your problems are your own, resolve them alone I'm just delusion, the solution is yours to find

I'm
just the reason why...
in no way your way out
Lies
cannot help to find
ends to be brought about Time
is what you swallow
as I drown you... getting low I
have no answers,
I am what you seek to know

It's unfair
but I don't care...
your grieving did its breeding in me I know it hurts
but what's it worth
for me to intervene

It's undeserved... who cares? Be sure it wouldn't make a difference to me I know you're low,
but even so
there's nothing I can help you to see
