"Blood, Sweat, And Fears"

I am the hate that burns inside you
I am the love that fate denies you I am the truth that shoves and floors you I am the fear that you've been born to... crawl

Blood is cool and dark and thick Sweat is old and hard and sticks to fears that sleep inside the dead... face down, facing what's ahead

I am the hate that burns inside you
I am the pain that stalks and finds you I am the ache that knots and binds you I am the rage that chokes you, blinds you

I am the hate that burns inside
I am the red before your eyes
Blackest cancer kills your pride, I am the you that wants to... oh that fucking needs to... that must, that fucking has to
... DIE
