

Daniel Franklin

"Those Hazy Days"

Visit "Those Hazy Days" on MotoLyrics.com

There's so much love within my heart
And it's calling out to you
It bears the pain that I'm going through Help me stop the pain And make it go away
We'll start again on this sacred day
Tell me you love me, dear
And set this heart at ease
Don't let it shed a tear
Just say you love me, please
The birds would not sing their song
And the willow would surely weep
The days would be very long
And at night I would not sleep
Darling I love you so I just wanna let you know
Oh baby I'm on my way Reminiscing those hazy days
The thought of being without you dear
Would be more than I could bear
My heart will die from losing a love so rare
So, let the birds sing their song from the heavens up above
Together, we belong I could die without your love
If I ever lose your love And you leave me all alone
The stars won't shine above And this house would not be a home
Darling I love you so I just wanna let you know
Oh baby I'm on my way Reminiscing those hazy days

Visit Daniel Franklin page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.