I gave you keys to the house
You burnt the place to the ground
I gave you money for food
You bought yourself a new car
I gave you my sisters number
You gave her pain in the ass
I gave you love at first sight
You smashed my face to the ground

I gave you my heart and soul
You took the money and run

I gave you my body to play
You fucked the best friend I had
I gave you danger and thrill
You gave me nightmare and lies
I gave you dreams to die for
You sent the cop to my flat
I gave you pleasure and fame
You got yourself a lawyer

I gave you my heart and soul
You took the money and run

Hey you can keep the money
You'll never get me back
Hey you can keep the money
But you won't get me back
I gave you time to step back
You stabbed me right in the back
I gave you reason to hate
You lost your balls and your pride
I gave you lessons to learn
You're still that bitter fuck
So I can give you that song
Like I give a dog a bone
I gave you my heart and soul
You took the money and run
