When we first met you said
It's complicated take it slow
Depper the water goes the more you wanna dip your toe
I couldn't get enough
I wanted you right there and then
Ignoring all the signs
I thought that you and I were cool
Said I was beautiful you put me on a pedstal
I would do anything to get back to those days again
Don't know what's wrong
Want to stay
In your arms

If two people can have it all
Live the dream and break the rules
Tell me why not us
If two people can fall in Love
Destiny should be enough
So tell me why not us
If this ain't right what are we fighting for
Like two worlds at war
What the heart beats for is Love
Turns everything to dust, oh

We're out for dinner and I notice you don't look my way
Remember when you used to hang on every word I say
And compliment me on a dress I would choose to wear

Don't know what's wrong
Want to stay
In your arms (In your arms)

If two people can have it all
Live the dream and break the rules
Tell me why not us
If two people can fall in Love
Destiny should be enough
So tell me why not us
If this ain't right what are we fighting for
Like two worlds at war
What the heart beats for is Love

Turns everything to dust, oh
Why not us (why not us)

If two people can have it all (have it all)
Live the dream and break the rules (break the rules)
Tell me why not us (ohh)
If two people can fall in Love (fall in love)
Destiny should be enough
So tell me why not us (why not us)

If two people can have it all (have it all)
Live the dream and break the rules (break the rules)
Tell me why not us
If two people can fall in Love (fall in love)
Destiny should be enough
So tell me why not us
