Prophetic - know the day will come to break our fall - undying - through the years we stole the strength of fire - and soon your convoluted truth - shall come to surface in their eyes - shall come to surface in the world - we'll turn you out at each distortion - we'll burn you out of each illusion - we stalk this 'hallowed' ground in tragedy - unfit to wear the wings of your elite - you spit the venom in our faces - the holy war is joined in progress - the war is joined -
the war is joined -

as you stare into the face of our truth - know that we'll never ingest this infection - the cage is shaking the joints come loose - receive the consequence for misdirection - we stand with backs turned at promises - we know your walls can't endure our struggle - your empty words have gone their distance - you walk unhallowed barren ground - unfit to wear these wings - we spit the venom back - know the day has come to break our fall - fear the day we break this fucking fall
