blades of iron raze the fields in ignorance - drawing deep the blood from earthly veins - withering the springs of richness deep within - leaving barren fertile gardens of delight - gardens of delight - sever the spirits from the earth - cut free the tethers from our hearts - we wear the execution mask - as we plunge headlong towards the dark - headlong towards the dark - unbind the spirits from the earth - let free the wicked in our hearts -

we wear the execution mask -
as we plunge headlong towards the dark - premonition man's destruction rising high - evolution coming to a full collapse - fragile balance shattered in the wake of greed - ashen gardens blackening we burn the seed - raise the scaffold high upon the gathering night - taut the cord to maximize the stranglehold - propagate the plague of human vanity - human vanity
