Boy. You opened up my heart.
You let me learn how to feel,
I'm not sure on what to do.
But boy, you gave me a chance,
One i didn't deserve.

You opened up my eyes,
and now i see the world.
You are the one who helped me change.
And boy i will not forget,
The day we met.

You were the reason why im singing to you tonight.
And boy you opened up my heart,
You gave me life,
Now i can be by your side forever more.
No one will stand in our way.
We will conquer the world and solve,
any differences.

But boy you are the only one i want.
