What it Seems Â– Dale Goodie

I don't need riches that's for sure,
I just gotta make a life that's secure,
Only want a house to call it a home.
I don't wanna spend a life alone,
All that I commit is heart and my soul,
I'm not blinded by all the dough.

I know how it must seem,
lookin' in from outside,
I'm a sinner and I believe,
That God is real in my life,
All I want is happiness, already fallen before,
Yet I know how it must seem.

I don't need a Maserati for sure,
I'm just happy I'm not at war,
But I'm not afraid of the unknown.
I don't wanna live a life by the phone,
I just wanna live by faith on its own,
I only want a love that leads me home.

I know how it must seem, lookin' in from outside
I'm a sinner and I believe, that God is real in my life
All I want is happiness, already Fallen before
Yet I know how it must seem.

My heart is set on a mountain, I don't need no
fountain of youth,
My beliefs they keep me countin' on the promises of truth.
My heart it's set on a mountain, I don't need no
fountain of youth,
My beliefs they keep me countin' on the promises.

I know how it must seem, lookin' in from outside,
I'm a sinner and I believe, that God is STILL in my life.
All I want is happiness, already fallen before,
Yet I know how it must seem.

I know how it must seem.
