No one wastes time quite like I do
I can waste time like nobody else
You can go running back to your friends
You can go running back to your friends

Well, that's how it feels
Oh, that's how it feels

I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
I would understand your heart
If I could feel it

All I have is all that I am feeling
All I feel well it's all that I know
And then I use it every day
And abuse it in every way

And that's how it feels
Yeah, that's how it feels

I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
I would understand your heart
If I could feel it

The sky is more certain
Than you will ever be
The rain clouds are angry
At you and at me

The sky is more certain
Than you will ever be
The rain clouds are angry
At you and at me

Forgive me baby
I am not all that you see

I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
I would understand your heart

If I could feel it

I would understand your heart

If I could feel it

Oh, I would understand your heart

If I could feel it
