This little creature is a monster
She likes to drink and get so mean
A vampire sucking on your vision
They like to get you dressed and clean

Hey baby, what's your sign?
That's something you gotta know

Won't you meet my little friend?
You wanna see my face again

Dig this experimenting genius
It's so much better from behind
Knew this High Priestess Of Carnalogy, baby
Look in the mirror, you're a star

Keep on beggin' but I ain't no fool
You're pretty like a donkey but I, I bet you kick like a mule

Won't you meet my little friend?
You wanna see my face again

Won't you meet my little friend?
You wanna see my face again
