Looks like snow is gonna fall
And I'm just waiting at the station
Hey there brother have you got the time
To share a cup of radiation

Looks like big doggie's on the move
Telling the little doggies what to do
Hey sister have you heard the news
Gonna be a better place for me and you

Looks like big doggie's on the move
Telling the little doggies what to do
Pull up a seat now and gather round
We'll spark it up as we count it down

I said, ?10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1, yeah?

Take me Jesus, take me Allah, rape me in Your room Torch our days in a paranoia, gorge ourselves on gloom, yeah
Give me pills and understanding, release me from
Your spell
I got to dance in my own heaven on the verge of all out hell, yeah

On the verge of all out hell, on the verge of all out hell
On the verge of all out hell, on the verge of all out hell
On the verge of all out hell, on the verge of all out hell
On the verge of all out hell, on the verge of all out hell
