We're all sinking in our hearts now, people,
One-hundred screens upon the wall,
A pretty cloud of confusion come to cover us all.

You're a smokin' hot mutation baby,
You nearly tanned yourself to death,
The way you learn that worm just makes me lose my breathe, yeah.

Well, pull me up and watch me fade,
Your dirty mind is driving me insane,
Those good ol' days ain't coming back again, oh no.

Now, keep your eye upon the saucer, baby,
Ignore the world as it bleeds,
You've got your phone and your mirror, what else do you need?

Well, pull me up and watch me fade,

Your dirty mind is driving me insane,
Those good ol' days ain't coming back again,
Not while Hydra's, it starts a-rapin' my brain.

Well, pull me up and watch me fade,
Distorted lies just say the same old thing,
Your piece of mind ain't coming back again,
As Hydra's head just keeps on raping my brain.

Pull me up,
Watch me fade,
Your dirty mind is driving me insane,
Those good ol' days ain't coming back again.
As Hydra's head - it's going straight to my brain.
