As she looks straight into my eyes My heart is going fast don't listen to me
I've lost the control
my mind is coming out
I hope that tonight something special's gonna happen take my hand and come with me

Hope that tonight something special's gonna happen
take my hand and come with me moon laughs on us, wind touches our skin slowly take my hand and come with me

I don't lie
when i look straight your eyes I don't lie
when my words talk about you

Our stares look down together our hearts are going fast
don't listen to me
I've lost the control
our thoughts are coming out

I hope that tonight something special's gonna happen

Hope that tonight something special's gonna happen
take my hand and come with me
