Even this mornig, darkness towards me
it seems my eyes couldn't see

I cannot breath
It's gonna kill me slowly,it wanna tear me down
It's suffocating me
There's no solution

No one told me
No one told me
Where to lye
No one told me
I wish that i could fly
No one told me
Shut the fuck 'n cry!

Was it just a dream,was reality?
I'm feeling it under my skin is this happening is it just my mind this light is making me blind

I found the line
the way is the correct one i think i follow the line
as this will bring me out of hell

No one told me
No one told me
Where to lye
No one told me
I wish that i could fly
No one told me
shut the fuck 'n cry!

And I'm waiting for you Feel so lonely under the sky
There is only me and the moon
