The same road leads to the same house
I wish this key would fit the door still
The same backyard but with a new fence, oh yeah
See, I dont live here anymore

Daddy used to pick me up
Make me feel like I was flying
Mommy used to laugh about me
And I wasn't even trying
Never a worry on my mind
I was the king, the world was blind

Everything's still the same except the time
Memories of the years I've left behind
And although I'm movin' on and I can't be forever young
The good days are forever in my mind

The same boy still gettin' in trouble
Oh, how we love to bend the rules
The same old friends still hangin the courtyard
But this time to pick their children up from school

Never had a boring day, there was always something cooking
You know, we never missed a thing we were way to busy looking
We knew the words to every song, we were right and they were wrong
But most of all, we were right where we belong

Everything's still the same except the time (except the time)
Memories of the years I've left behind (ooh-oh)
And although i'm movin' on and I can't be forever young
The good days are forever in my mind

What I'd give for just another day
Of innocents I trade my right
If only it were just to run away
From all these lies
Haven't snuck their way inside

Everything's still the same except the time
Good old time

Everything's still the same except the time (except the
Memories of the years I've left behind (I've left behind)
And although I'm movin' on and I can't be forever young
The good days are forever in my mind

And everything's the same except the time
And although I'm movin' on and I can't be forever young
The good days are forever

Oohooohoo
Stuck in my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind and though

Stuck in my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind and though

Stuck in my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind and though

Stuck in my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
Stuck in my mind
(Stuck in my mind)
In my mind and though

Back in the day
Back in the day
Back in the day
Seemed like everything was okay

Said I remember the time I was a little boy, dreamin'
being a man
It was so unconvincing I knew it all, people didn't understand
No one ever knew what we did back there we had it all so figured out

The world at our feet our hearts on the street the only thing we cared about Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
