And another night away now
In a world of my own
I got a picture of the bedroom, darling
And you're lying there alone

I may work another morning
Oh, or I may be away from home
I need to trust that you always know, girl
I got you on my mind
I got you on my mind
I got you on my mind
I got you on my mind

There's a thousand different people
That I gotta talk to, gotta see, yeah
Don't you know the only one I always really need
Is hardly ever near me

I may fly another airplane, baby
Yeah, I may be far away from home
I need to trust that you always know
I've got you on my mind
I've got you on my mind
I've got you on my mind
I've got you on my mind

You may walk away tomorrow
But that won't change the way I feel
Baby that's how much my love is real, real, real

I've got you on my mind
Said I've got you on my mind
I've got you on my mind
I've got you on my mind

Every thought in my mind
you, you, you, you, you, you
Every word I write down
you, you, you, you, you, you
Every song that I sing
You, you, you, you, you, you
It's all you baby

You, you, you, you, you, you
