Don't ever hold back your words
Thinking that what you say is irrelevant who else would care
See we feed of off each other yeah
And it's alright to speak your mind

Only if we dig do we get deeper
Only if we think do we figure things out
Nothing ever came of any dreamer
Who didn't live it out

Don't you worry bout the way you move
Cause there's a million different ways in how to do

And if the blood on your hands and knees are your excuse
It's alright to fall you'll learn

Only if we dig do we get deeper
Only if we think do we figure things out
Nothing ever came of any dreamer
Who didn't live it out

Only if we dig do we get deeper
Only if we think do we figure things out
Nothing ever came of any dreamer
Who didn't live it out

Who didn't live it out

Don't pull the shades
Let the light shine through and brighten up the place
No don't be safe
Let your dreams come out and play
Only if we dig do we get deeper
And only if we think do we figure things out

Only if we dig do we get deeper
Only if we think do we figure things out
Nothing ever came of any dreamer
Who didn't live it out

Who didn't live it out
Who didn't live it out
