Cold & Anxious

Cold & anxious
Against the wind
Tearing up in bed
With my eyes all sore
As I look thru the glass
Upon the shelves
When I see myself
I see myself

Beneath the lies and trues
Upon ourselves
Searching for that someone
That will bring timeless
And that will shine
And bring us back to life

Alone and without
It's all I got
Don't push that far
Cause certain things in life
Are so much tragic
Guess no wonder why
No wonder why
