Letters

What you done to me
And can you tell me what life is for
Let it go away
And now you're falling on your knees

Believe it or not
Tell me something that I don't know
But maybe every detail for me
It's important for you

If you cant decide
Up or down
Try moving across
But if you can't decide
Up or down
Try moving across

Passing thru this lane
And IV been trying to find myself
And it's so far away
And IV been trying to change myself

Hello my dearest
It took me a while
To understand
That everything u said to me
It never came from the heart &
The way I treat you now
Is the way that you deserve
And by the way this is not
My sweet revenge
This is just my last
Goodbye
