LOST

There's no other, way to do this I'm committed to suicide
all this questions without answers
Are making my world upside down

I'm breaking today, is my last Chance
Is my last Stand, to find my way?
Tomorrow seems so far away from me

I've been waving on Concrete Ocean
Figuring out, what its next
Im just trying to find myself
To ask the questions lock in me

Is tearing me apart
Is breaking me apart
Is turning my heart
Upside down
