If the sky is falling
I wanna go out
When The night is fading
So is my soul x2

We need some time
To make up our minds
Some time to think straight
I'll dive inside your brain
Just to let you know
That there is no need to stay
If maybe tomorrow it will fade out again

(Bridge)

When it's getting colder I can't feel my bones
If I get caught by the future
I won't make sense at all

When everybody is leaving
Where should I go?
Where everybody is walking
Why do I run? x2

We need some time
To make up our minds
Some time to think straight
I'll dive inside your brain
Just to let you know
That there is no need to stay
If maybe tomorrow I will fade out again
No reason to stay
If maybe tomorrow it will die again
No reason to stay
If maybe tomorrow... x3
