

Duff McKagan

"Believe In Me"

Visit "Believe In Me" on MotoLyrics.com

When I was a young boy
Said some man parted some sea
They said believe in us
Why should they lie to me

Now I'm not a young boy
What I believe is what I believe
But I still get fooled sometimes
It's so goddamned easy

"Huh!
Why should I believe in you
I've got lots about man
If I meet damn it
And all the things you could never dream
Getting me?
Believe in you?
Yeah right!"

Oh shit not again!

Now that I'm a grown man
Be the best that I can be
Been down every rocky road
And I'm bloodied at my knees
But I treat you like a princess
Never ask to be the king
Just believe in me
Believe in me
Believe in me
Yeah yeah
Where does it leave me
When you don't believe in me
Where does it leave me
When you don't believe in me

I'd climb any mountain
Yeah I'd cross any sea
I might break down and cry
But I'd drop down my bottle of rye
If you'd just believe in me

Believe in me
Believe in me
Where does it leave me
When you don't believe in me
Where does it leave me
When you don't believe in me

But I'm still my own man
Yeah I'm still my own man
And I do what I can
And while you're treating me raw
I still make my own law
I still make my own law

Come on
Believe in me
Believe in me
Yeah... me
Believe in me
Yeah
Come on
Believe in me
Can't you see just believe in me
Come on
Believe in me
Yeah yeah
Believe in me

Visit Duff Mckagan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.